

An aerial photograph of the S.S. Milwaukee Clipper, a large white ship with a prominent red stripe along its hull. The ship is docked at a curved pier made of concrete and gravel. The name "MILWAUKEE CLIPPER" is visible on the bow and the side of the ship. In the background, there is a marina with many smaller boats and a forested shoreline under a clear sky.

S.S. Milwaukee Clipper Rentable Spaces

The image shows a long, empty dining room on a ship. The room features a series of wooden tables and blue chairs arranged in rows. A long, light-colored wooden counter runs along the left side of the room. Large windows with striped awnings line the right side, offering a view of the water and distant land. The ceiling is white with exposed pipes and a large fan. The floor is made of dark wood. The text "Dining Room" is overlaid in the center.
